The WonderWombs

The WonderWombs

This feminist circus party will uncork your expectations like a bottle of cheap champagne.

Eating binaries for breakfast and unfastening the buckles at gender's waistline, these performers don't need to hit the glass ceiling – they can lift it!

The WonderWombs brings to life powerful and intersectional feminist ideas with the magic of circus. In an ever-intensifying series of vignettes, seven incredible female and non-binary circus performers weave their message together with mind-boggling aerials, acrobatics, burlesque, dance, spoken word, and performance art.

What results is a feminist circus party with surprises around every corner. This show uses an inclusive definition of femme, and includes all self-identifying female, trans, and non-binary folks.

‘This is top quality contemporary neo-burlesque. Full of provocations that subvert stereotypes of ‘woman’, it is righteously sex-positive and utterly refreshing for it. It’s a mesmerising feast for the eyes with a cohort of women who completely own the stage for the whole delicious hour...a sparkling, juicy, feminist manifesto that laughs and mocks and brawls and riots all the way to the finish line.’
